

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 2022

Conference Workshop Teaching with the Latino Americans Documentary Series and Curriculum Suite 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM Eastern Connection Session Graphic Biographies and the OER Project 2:00 – 2:50 PM Eastern
Virtual Field Trips 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern
Field Experiences for Deep Learning	Lawmakers or Lawbreakers? Facing Slave Catchers and Standing up for What is Right!	The Cost of Progress: Examining Labor in Appalachia in the Aftermath of the...	Students Learning Objectives through Service-Learning Projects and Honoring...
Disrupting Traditional Narratives through Online Curricula and...	A Close Look at a Family Photograph from Manzanar: Engaging Young Learners in...	Teaching the Civil Rights Movement with the Georgia Historical Marker Program
Exhibitor Sessions 5:45 – 6:45 PM Eastern
Keynote Session Oh, They BIG Mad!: The Quest for Black Joy as a Historical Principle LaGarrett King, University of Buffalo 7:00 – 8:00 PM Eastern

FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 2022

Conference Workshop Using DBQ "Quick Writes" in DBQ Online to Accelerate Student Learning 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM Eastern
Connection Session Educating for American Democracy: A New Roadmap for Teaching History and Civics Together 2:00 – 2:50 PM Eastern
Virtual Field Trips 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern
Constitutional Change: Amendments and Other Legal Mechanisms	George Washington's Mount Vernon - Stories of the Enslaved Community and...	Creating Collaborative Knowledge Communities to Increase Access to the...	The Longest Hatred: History of European Antisemitism
Civil Rights Investigation: Mississippi Burning	Full STEAM Ahead: Pairing Graphic Novels and Primary Sources with Elementary...	Assessing Reliability, Relevance, Perspective and Missing Narratives in Student...
Exhibitor Sessions 5:45 – 6:45 PM Eastern
Keynote Session Communities of Faith in Motion Merry Wiesner-Hanks, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee 7:00 – 8:00 PM Eastern
Evening Event History Trivia Night: From the Creators of HistoryPlunge 8:30 - 9:30 PM Eastern

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 2022

Breakout Sessions 10:45 – 11:45 AM Eastern
Changing Communities: The Great Migration & Redlining	Engagement Through Student-Centered Learning	Why Here?: Considering Power, Place, and Perspectives	Pulaski County: A History
We Have Hard History and We Teach It: Grappling With the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre	Using Local History to Teach the National Narrative	Two Case Studies from Preservice History Teacher Education with the Library of...
Timely Topics Educational Gag Orders: A State Landscape 12:00 – 1:00 PM Eastern
Keynote Session America's Third Reconstruction: Narrative Wars and the Struggle for Multiracial Democracy Peniel Joseph, University of Texas 1:00 – 2:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 2:30 – 3:30 PM Eastern
Women, Politics, and Public Service	Racial Slavery in the Atlantic World and Its Legacies Today	Three Moments from the Civil War: Historic Sites Model Teaching Living Memory	Never Again - Teaching the Holocaust via Inquiry
Finding Freedom	From Reform to Equal Rights: Curriculum to Teach 200 Years of Disability History	Digitally Writing New Histories: Rethinking Professional Learning with...
Breakout Sessions 4:00 – 5:00 PM Eastern
9/11 to COVID 19: Connecting Historical Turning Points	Joe Hill: Martyr for the Labor Union Community	Contested Landscapes	The Constitution and Our Community: Civic Education Resources for Elementary...
Beyond Booker T. vs. W.E.B.: The Promise and Practice of Education by and for Black...	Technology and Primary Sources in the Social Studies Classroom	The Struggle Continues: Engaging with the Long Civil Rights Movement
Keynote Session History from the Inside Out: St. Louis and the Possibilities of North American History Peter Kastor, Washington University in St. Louis 6:00 – 7:00 PM Eastern Evening Event History Matters (and so do Cocktails!) Joanne Freeman, Yale University 8:00 - 9:00 PM Eastern

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

SUNDAY, MARCH 20, 2022

Breakout Sessions 10:45 – 11:45 AM Eastern
Martha Washington and the Women of the 18th Century	Bias is Ubiquitous: 3 Strategies to Introduce Students to the Discipline of History	How Chicago Transformed Martin Luther King, Jr.	Action Citizen: Youth and the Environment
Reconciling Patriot Versus Loyalist Communities Following the Revolutionary...	Inquiry, Analysis, and Argument: Three Digital Primary Source Teaching Tools	Engaging the Contemporary Historical Moment: Culturally Relevant Pedagogy and...
Timely Topics Profiles in Courage: Educators Who Inspire 12:00 – 1:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 1:30 – 2:30 PM Eastern
Strategies for English Language Learners Are Good for All Learners	Raising the Bar: Teaching U.S. History using SCOTUS Cases	Ancient Chinese Thought and the Enlightenment	Bringing International Perspectives into US World History Teaching
Pauli Murray: Community Collaborator & Agitator	Journalists Who Made History – PBS NewsHour Classroom	Primary Source or Secondary Source: Why Does It Matter?
Breakout Sessions 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
Immigration: Dreams of Baseball, Belonging & America	Using Young Adult Literature to Engage Today's Youth with the Causes and Consequences...	Diplomacy, Sanctions, and Peacekeeping—Oh My! Games and Simulations Bring...	Women of Color and the Civil Rights Movements: Incorporating Multiple Perspectives through...
Decolonizing the American Story	Observe, Reflect, Question: A Deeper Look at the Components of the Primary...	Communities and Natural Disasters: Exploring Interdisciplinary Connections...
Keynote Session Founding Frenemies Alexis Coe, American Political Historian 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern			